SERIAL No.

Ref Letter No 219 J dated 17th February 1902 from the Inspector General of Prisons in Mysore.

In his letter No 1489 J dated 30th October 1901, the Inspector Genl of Prisons solicited sanction to the purchase of two Revolvers with ammunition for the use of the Supdt and Deputy Jailor, Bangalore Central Jail. The cost of the two revolvers with ammunition was reported to amount to Rs 119 as per details in the margin.

Thereupon the Inspector Genl was asked to intimate the No and date of the Govt order, if any, sanctioning the purchase of such revolvers at Govt Cost. In reply, the Inspector Genl now reports that the

Bulldog Revolver for the Superintendent } Rs 56
Bulldog Revolver for the D. Jailor } Rs 50
Ammunition 100 rounds each Revolver at Rs 7 + 6 } 13
Total Rs 119

the above information is not available and that to his knowledge revolvers were supplied to the Supdt, jailor & Deputy jailor; that the one belonging to the Supdt was lost by Mr D.A. Chokai, and that the one belonging to the deputy jailor was sent by the late Inspector General of Prisons, for the use of the jailor at the Shimoga jail. He further states that as the present Supdt has one, only one is now required to be purchased (Rs 3) for the Deputy jailor) and that the cost of the same be met out of General savings of the jail Budget for the current year. The Cost of the revolver and ammunition recommended to be purchased for for the use of the Dy. jailor amounts to Rs 56 as mentioned in the margin.

A communication as above was addressed to the Residency, & in reply thereto the P.A. Resident requested to be furnished with the (Notification) order under which a Bull-dog revolver was originally supplied to the Dy. jailor, Central jail, Bangalore.

The above information was already called for (from the P.G. Govt) in this office docket No 9162/1885 dated 17th December 1901, & in reply, he stated that this information could not be obtained from the records of his office.

May the Residency be informed that the order referred to is not traced?

Sir,

I have the honor to request your sanction to the purchase of 2 revolvers with ammunition for the use of the Superintendent and Deputy Jailor of this Jail. The Superintendent's revolver was mislaid some 7 years back and the Deputy Jailors revolver was in 1898 by order of the Inspector General of Prisons sent for the use of the Jailor at Shimoga.

The cost of the 2 revolvers with ammunition may be met from the savings of the clothing allotment of this Jail for the current year.

Sir,

With reference to your docket No. 9162 J.825 dated the 13th December 1901, enquiring when revolvers for the use of the Superintendent and Deputy Jailor, Bangalore Central Jail, were purchased last time &c, I have the honor to forward a copy letter No.998, dated 15th February 1902, from the Superintendent of the said Jail and to state, that revolvers, were to my know-ledge supplied to the Superintendent, Jailor and Deputy Jailor. The one belonging to Superintendent was lost by Mr.D.A.Choksi and has apparently not been replaced, the one belonging to the Deputy Jailor was sent by the late Inspector General of Prisons, for the use of the Jailor at the Shimoga Jail.

2. As the Superintendent has one, only one is now required and this may be kindly sanctioned. The cost to be met out of general savings of the Jail Budget, for the current year.

Sir,

Adverting to your order No.1638/J dated 17th December 1901, I have the honor to report in reply, that Registers of Tools and Plants so far back as 16 or 20 years have been searched fruitlessly, and the information called for in the Secretary's letter No.9162/J.825 dated 13th December 1901, cannot therefore be furnished from the records of this Office.

2. The fact however remains that revolvers are needed for the Superintendent and Deputy Jailor. The present Superintendent having his own, it is requested that the Deputy Jailor be given one.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,
